

January 2018, 'Point in Time' Analysis

1. Introduction

The Strategic Plan 2017-2020 and the Communications and Engagement Strategy 2017-2020 of Oberstown Children Detention Campus contain a commitment to collate and analyse good quality data to support the quality of care provided to young people. Following on from the publication of a detailed Q1 snapshot of the circumstances of young people, and continuing our commitment to publish timely and relevant statistics on young people in detention, a 'point-in-time' statistical report will now be published on a monthly basis.

The data captured here reflects a snapshot of young people in Oberstown on a given day each month. The bulletin provides an overview of the population in terms of offending, background, health and well-being, education and care.

2. Overview of population

5. Education

Regarding education, young people's files recorded the following data:

- 23 young people had not been engaging in education prior to admission.
- For a further 9 young people, it was not clear from their files if they had been in education prior to detention.
- 6 young people had learning difficulties/disabilities.

6. Children in Care¹

Of the 43 young people in Oberstown:

- 14 young people were in care prior to detention.²
- 2 young people were under a Special Care order prior to detention.³
- Files indicated that there were child protection concerns⁴ in respect of 9 young people, 8 of which were from within their own families.
- 19 young people had a social worker.
- 5 young people had a Guardian Ad Litem.⁵

¹ This covers all forms of care as outlined in the Child Care Act, 1991, namely voluntary, foster, residential, special care or emergency care

² Care placements may not always have been active immediately prior to detention.

In some cases, the young people in question had multiple placements over a number of years, while in others young people were under long-term full care orders. Others still had just recently come to the attention of the care services.

³ Special Care is short term, stabilising and safe care in a secured therapeutic environment. A placement in Special Care can only be made pursuant to an Order of the High Court.

⁴ Child protection concerns refers to young people who are at risk of abuse/neglect. See Tusla, <http://www.tusla.ie/services/child-protection-welfare/>.

⁵ A GAL is a court appointed representative who advocates for a young person during court proceedings.
